This pan-Asian showcase is one of the city's best smaller-scale film fests. This year's entries include Oxhide II, an intoxicatingly simple real-time, fixed-camera flick about a family making dumplings. The closing-night gala offering is the Taiwanese Au Revoir Taipei, a Woody Allen–esque bonbon of a caper involving a lovelorn boy, the bookstore clerk who's crushing on him, and a crew of bumbling gangsters.
